Netherlands Withholding Tax on Dividends

The basic Netherlands withholding tax on dividends is 15%.

With effect from January 1, 1994, the Tax Convention of December 18, 1992 between the United States of America and the Netherlands which was amended by the Protocol signed on March 8, 2004 (the "Tax Convention") entered into force.

Below is a brief and incomplete summary of the Tax Convention. With regard to any particular circumstances and local tax consequences, advice should be obtained from your own tax counsel.

General:

Individuals resident in the United States, as well as the U.S. Government, its political subdivisions and its local authorities can claim treaty benefits. U.S. resident persons other than the before mentioned must satisfy the conditions of Article 26 (Limitation on Benefits) of the Tax Convention in order to qualify for treaty reduction of Netherlands withholding tax on dividends.

As described below there is a procedure for relief at source except for exempt organizations (e.g. charities) as dealt with in Article 36 of the Tax Convention. If this procedure is not utilized a refund may be obtained.

15% Netherlands Withholding Tax:

Under the Tax Convention the reduced rate of 15% Netherlands withholding tax on dividends applies to individuals resident in the United States and to corporations organized under the laws of the United States or of a state or territory thereof and any other legal person subject to United States

Federal income tax with respect to its worldwide income, provided the ADRS on which the dividend is paid are not effectively connected with a permanent establishment or a fixed base of the shareholder in the Netherlands.

0% Netherlands Withholding Tax:

Under the Tax Convention the rate of Netherlands withholding tax is generally reduced to 0% for dividends received by certain United States organizations that are generally exempt from United States Federal income tax and that are constituted and operated exclusively to administer or provide pension, retirement or other employee benefits (Exempt Pension Trusts, Article 35 of the Tax Convention).

Important – As outlined below in DTC Important Notice B# 0384 of July 28, 2000:

In order to secure Article 35 benefits, Depository Participants must have the following documents on file:

- Certification letter (Form 6166) by the U.S. IRS for the taxable year(s) in question, stating that the trust in question is a trust forming part of a pension, profit sharing, or stock bonus plan qualified under Code section 401(a) of the IRC; or for all qualifying U.S. pension types (including qualified pension plans under Code section 401(a)),
- Qualification certification by the competent Netherlands tax authorities, stating that the trust in question is a U.S. resident tax-exempt trust as described in article 35, paragraph 1 of the treaty.

Full refund of 15% Netherlands Withholding Tax:

Under the Tax Convention, certain United States organizations that are generally exempt from United States Federal income tax and that are constituted and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, educational or public purposes (Exempt Organizations, Article 36 of the Tax Convention), are now subject to an initial 15% Netherlands withholding tax on dividends. Such an Exempt Organization, if it would be exempt from tax in the Netherlands if it were organized and carried on all its activities therein, is entitled to reclaim directly from the Netherlands Tax Authorities a full refund of the 15% Netherlands withholding tax (see below).

Reduced Netherlands Withholding Tax Rates under other tax conventions and the Tax Regulation for the Kingdom of the Netherlands:

Where ADRs are beneficially owned by non-residents of the United States, any exemption from, or reduction or refund of, the Netherlands withholding tax on dividends is governed by the "Tax Regulation for the Kingdom of the Netherlands" or by the respective tax convention, if any, between The Netherlands and their country of residence.

PROCEDURE

Procedure for Banks, Brokers and Nominees who are participants in a Depository System

Enclosed with this notice is a form ("Split Letter") on which you are requested to certify the number of ADRs registered in your account on the record date which are beneficially owned by:

- 1) exempt pension trusts resident in the United States, as referred to in Article 35 of the Tax Convention;
- 2) exempt organizations resident in the United States, as referred to in Article 36 of the Tax Convention;
- 3) residents of Indonesia, China or Venezuela convention (while sending the required tax forms 'IB 92 UNIVERSEEL' to JPMorgan Chase Bank c/o Globe Tax Services, Inc., 90 Broad Street 16th Floor, New York, NY 10004); (5% refund);

- 4) exempt pension trusts or other tax-exempt entity entitled to claim an exemption of tax as a resident in a European Union (E.U.) member state (while sending the required tax form "Dividend tax refund for foreign legal entities which are not liable to pay profits tax" to JPMorgan Chase Bank c/o Globe Tax Services, Inc., 90 Broad Street 16th Floor, New York, NY 10004); (15% refund);
- 5) other residents of the United States or any other country with a treaty rate of 15% or greater;

You are also requested to confirm that changes, if any, in your dividend declarations in respect of previous record dates have been separately reported to us. At the time that you become aware that previous dividend payments were made on a 90% or 100% basis while the shareholders were entitled to only 85% or 90% of the dividend, the 5%, 10%, or 15% withholding tax difference must be refunded to us without delay. In order to receive on the payment date the dividend after deduction of Netherlands withholding tax at a reduced rate, the Split Letter, and the requisite tax affidavits must be received by us on or prior to August 9, 2007.

On August 21, 2007, we will make available to each depository a sufficient amount of immediately available funds to pay dividends on all ADRs registered in the nominee name of the depository, provided however that we shall withhold 15% of the declared dividend, pursuant to Netherlands law.

On August 21, 2007, (or, if the Split Letter as referred to above has not been received in good time, shortly after receipt of the Split Letter) we shall mail to each participant a supplemental payment for 15% of the dividend with respect to those ADRs reported to be beneficially owned by exempt pension trusts as dealt within Article 35 of the Tax Convention that are resident in the United States and that satisfy the conditions of Article 26 of that Convention.

Note: Split Letters will be accepted by JPMorgan Chase Bank for a one year period that ends on August 14, 2008. Consequently, Declarations in Lieu of the Dividend Note (the proof of withholding) will not be available from JPMorgan Chase Bank until this one year period has ended, except for charities under Article 36.

After August 14, 2008, any refund of the 5% or 15% difference in Netherlands tax can only be obtained directly from the Netherlands Tax Authorities within the timeframe defined in the treaty between the Netherlands and the country of residence of the beneficial owner, generally set as three years after the expiration of the calendar year in which the tax has been levied. In this case a separate request must be filed by each beneficial owner with the Belastingdienst Limburg/kantoor buitenland, P.O. Box 2865, 6401 DJ Heerlen, The Netherlands on a duly completed Tax Form as outlined below (*) (NOT to be used by a U.S. charity or other exempt organization as dealt with in Article 36 of the Tax Convention; see (4), which should be accompanied by proof of the withholding and a satisfactory explanation of the reasons why the dividend payment was not obtained with the procedure described above.

Please note that no supplemental checks will be mailed with respect to U.S. exempt organizations (e.g. charities) as dealt with in Article 36, first paragraph of the Tax Convention. These exempt organizations, provided they satisfy the conditions of Article 26 of that Convention, can obtain a full refund of Netherlands dividend tax directly from the Netherlands Tax Authorities within three years after the expiration of the calendar year in which the tax has been levied. Therefore a separate request must be filed by each beneficial owner with the Belastingdienst Limburg/kantoor buitenland, P.O. Box 2865, 6401 DJ Heerlen, The Netherlands on a duly completed Tax Form IB 95 USA (*), which should be accompanied by proof of the withholding. The proof of withholding will be provided if requested on the Split Letter. (Please note: In this case form IB 92 USA (*) may not be used.) The applicant should state the manner in and the address to which the Netherlands Tax Authorities should transmit the refund amount.

Claims after August 9, 2007 but on or prior to August 14, 2008

Where 85% of the dividend has been paid while you are holding ADRs for beneficial owners entitled to a reduced Netherlands withholding tax rate on dividends, supplemental payments for 5% or 15% of the dividend, whatever is applicable, can be made by us (except to exempt organizations as referred to under (4) above), provided the following documents are received by us on or prior to August 14, 2008:

a - Post Paydate Split Letter of the number of ADRs beneficially owned on the record date by exempt U.S. pension trusts.

b - Duly completed tax forms in respect of ADRs beneficially owned, on the record date, by residents of the countries listed in the attached schedule.

It is important that the Post Paydate Split Letters or properly certified tax form, as referred to under (a) and (b) above, be received by us on or prior to August 14, 2008, since after that date no supplemental payments of the tax withheld will be made by us. Thereafter, a refund (if any) of the tax can be obtained directly from the Netherlands Tax Authorities within a period varying for the various countries between 2 and 6 years after the expiration of the calendar year in which the tax has been levied. In this case, a separate request must be filed by each beneficial owner with the Belastingdienst Limburg/kantoor buitenland, P.O. Box 2865, 6401 DJ Heerlen, The Netherlands, on the appropriate tax form which should be accompanied by proof of the withholding and a satisfactory explanation of the reasons why the appropriate tax form was not obtained and submitted to us before said date. The proof of withholding of 15% Netherlands dividend tax may not be submitted before August 14, 2008, and must be in the form of a prescribed declaration which is obtainable from us upon request based on the Split Letter. The applicant should state the manner in and the address to which the Netherlands Tax Authorities should transmit the refund amount. For detailed information on this procedure reference is made to the explanatory note enclosed.

ATTENTION: REFUNDS WILL BE CONSIDERABLY DELAYED IF THE REQUIRED FORMS ARE NOT PROPERLY FILLED OUT.
